Kathryn C. Powers
Clerk of the Circuit Court
County of Powhatan

Barry Hodge, Board Chairman
County of Powhatan

We have audited the accompanying Statement of Assets and Liabilities of William E. Maxey, Jr., former Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Powhatan for the period July 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013. All records supporting the amounts presented in this financial statement are the responsibility of this Clerk. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statement based on our audit.

Our primary objectives were to test the accuracy of financial transactions recorded on the Court's financial management system; evaluate the Court's internal controls; and test its compliance with significant state laws, regulations, and policies. However, our audit was more limited than would be necessary to provide assurance on the internal controls or on overall compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and policies.

The purpose of the audit was to determine the accountability of the former Clerk at September 30, 2013, and to turn over the assets, accounts, and records of the office to Kathryn C. Powers, the newly appointed Clerk of the Circuit Court.

As described in Note 1, this financial statement has been prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. This basis of accounting is prescribed by the State Comptroller and approved by the Auditor of Public Accounts as it is deemed the appropriate method of reporting by Clerks of the Circuit Court.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the assets and liabilities of the Clerk of the Circuit court of the County of Powhatan as of September 30, 2013, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

We acknowledge the cooperation extended to us during this engagement.
